The next day, Zep filed the instant motion for reconsideration. The motion has remained pending for five months, primarily due to the ongoing inability of Plaintiff's counsel to file his response on the Court's CM/ECF system. Based on the Joint Stipulation and the supporting Affidavit, it now appears that there is a plausible argument that the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, such that the Court may properly exercise jurisdiction over this case. In summary, Plaintiff seeks lost compensation and commissions for multiple years.

In accordance with the foregoing, the MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF REMAND (ECF No. 4) is GRANTED. The Court hereby rescinds its November 10, 2015 Order of Remand to the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Pennsylvania and hereby reopens the case. Defendant shall file its Answer on or before May 11, 2016.

Plaintiff's counsel shall personally contact the CM/ECF Help Desk to resolve his problems with use of the CM/ECF system FORTHWITH. Contact information and a User Manual are readily available on the Court's website, www.pawd.uscourts.gov.

SO ORDERED this 20th day of April, 2016.
